MR. JAMES W. DAILEY
English Head Master

Today, as the men of Boston English and Boston Latin prepare to engage in this, the 84th annual classic football game, we should imbue ourselves with the spirit of this Thanksgiving Day.

Loyalty and enthusiasm have always characterized the students, faculty, and alumni of these — oldest of America's schools. Throughout their long and brilliant histories each school has developed a tradition of school excellence and good sportsmanship, which is unrivaled beyond Avenue Louis Pasteur.

It is this spirit, this determination to excel which makes peaceful co-existence between the two schools possible, and make the friendly rivalry a way of life.

This spirit and determination has compelled thousands of alumni, and students, past and present to converge on a cold, windy, and often drenched ivy-covered stadium with great expectations for their team of young warriors leaving the "battlefield" as the victors in this classical confrontation.

To many students and alumni of both English and Latin, a winning season may consist solely of a victory over the "team across the street."

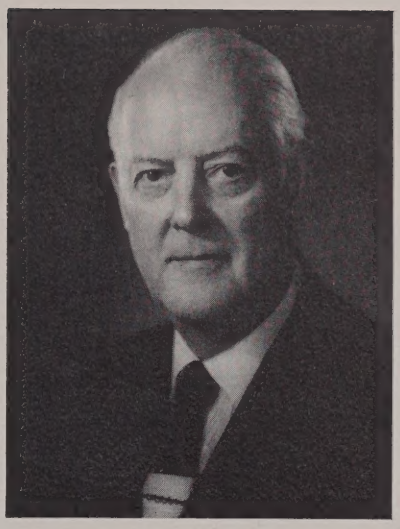
The school spirit, the long, enduring hours of practice, combined with the 84 years of tradition, supply our teams with the incentive to win "THE GAME."

Neither team could participate in this classic event without the needed assistance from their deeply respected coaches. These men, who are more dedicated to this game than any other school event throughout the year, have seen their "men" come up through the ranks and helped in molding them into what they are today.



DR. WILFRED O'LEARY
Latin Head Master

To Mr. Joseph King and Mr. Howard Smith, along with their indispensable coaching staffs, we would like to take a moment to say: "Thanks for a job well done." "You have strengthened our players physical capabilities along with their moral standings, and we have all, without a doubt, benefited well by your examples."

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, tried and true,
English High, our English High;
Oft our hearts shall turn to you,
English High, our English High;
Should e'er the laurel wreath be mine,
I'll lay the honor at thy shrine,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers are thine
English High, our English High.

Men may come and men may go,
English High, our English High;
Yet in deep and peaceful flow,
English High, our English High;
Shall thy stream of learning wide,
Through the ages grandly glide,
Ever to thy sons a pride,
English High, our English High.

B. L. S. Cheerleaders

The girls you see in purple and white are the B.L.S. cheerleaders from Girls' Latin School.

The B.L.S. cheerleaders started last year when over 300 eager girls filled a gym to learn a competition cheer presented by the Roslindale cheerleaders. The girls who went to the tryouts were screened by a panel of judges. One week later, the actual squad of fifteen girls was announced.

Intense practice began last spring. Mornings and afternoons were utilized for cheerleading sessions. Money for letters and shakers was raised by a candy sale sponsored by the S.T.A.C. (Student-Teacher Advisory Council). Through the 1969-70 season, the girls gave warm support for the football team. At the end of the season, the girls started preparation for the City Cheerleading Competitions. Although that season was their first, the cheerleaders did surprisingly well in competition.

In May, Cheerleading practice continued under the new co-captains Marie Parlon and Deb Brennan. The girls attended clinics and classes to improve and complete their cheerleading routines.

Through the 1970-71 season the Boston Latin Cheerleaders have been at the games to support the team. For the first time in the history of B.L.S. the cheerleaders went to the football rallies at the school. These cheerleaders are an inspiration to all the B.L.S. teams.

Glancing at the Record

It understates the obvious to say that this series has had more than its share of great games, players, and teams, but it's interesting to note that one phenomenon quite common to other long-standing rivalries has been conspicuously absent over the years. That phenomenon is the "upset". For eighty-three years the vast majority of games have seen the pre-game favorite emerge victorious. True, more than a few hairs have turned gray because the favorite has had to turn a stadium inside out before it could pull out a victory, but even a liberal reading of the record shows that at most twenty games have resulted in an upset. The upset has quite definitely been the exception, not the rule. This year "Glancing at the Record" presents highlights of a representative sampling of this very rare breed —

THE UPSETS

English turned the trick twice in four years when it upset the Purple in 1927 and again in 1930. 20,000 fans looked on in 1927 when the Blue combined three touchdowns and a safety (one of only two safeties scored since 1887) to outscore a favored BLS team 20-13 and capture the City Championship. Touchdowns by Hughes (a 70 yard run) and Downes gave EHS a 14-13 lead in the third quarter, but it was Hughes' second touchdown (a 42 yard run) which clinched the English victory.

Three years later Coach Daley's team faced a BLS contingent that had started slowly that year but had won four straight to get the nod as the pre-game favorite. In a game which ended in a blinding snow squall, underdog English "bit and clawed" its way to a 14-13 win. 18,000 hardy spectators saw the Blue combine touchdowns in the first and last periods and then hold on in spite of two quick late scores by the Purple to post its 19th victory in the series.

In 1934 the tables were turned as Latin School upset a previously undefeated EHS squad 13-12. Playing in a heavy fog before 22,000 at Fenway Park, BLS's "Buddy" McLaughlin scored two touchdowns and thereby doubled the total number of points previously scored against the Blue all season long.

Probably the two greatest upsets in the history of the series produced no winners at all! Both ended in scoreless ties. In 1939 and again in 1945 English entered the game as an overwhelming favorite and both times was shut out by an inspired Latin School aggregation. The 1939 game saw the Purple hold 3 touchdown favorite English to a total offense of 115 yards as it never allowed the Blue beyond midfield. EHS was tough also as it stopped four BLS drives deep in its own territory. The beautiful sunshine of that day was in direct contrast to Thanksgiving Day six years later as Latin School took advantage of a torrential rain to hold 35 point favorite English to the last of the series' scoreless ties. It had rained for three of the four preceding days and when a heavy downpour began falling on the holiday itself, EHS Coach Ohrenberger tried to have the game postponed. The "powers that be" gave the BLS squad the option to play or not to play (and it should be noted that 43 other games were postponed that day) and, as described in the press, "never a team to look a gift horse in the mouth, Boston Latin gratefully accepted the driving southeast torrent of rain that arrived early and stayed late by taking advantage of the slippery footing to hold highly favored English High to a scoreless tie before 5,000 very faithful fans". The "Spaghetti Special" of EHS — a pass play from DiGiorgio to Marino to Luciano to DiGiorgio to Farrell — proved to be of no avail as co-captains Vokey and Greeley combined with Mabry, Dempsey and Curran to throttle the Blue.

In the last quarter century the upset has been almost nonexistent — although the 1958 and 1966 games nearly resulted in stunning upsets. The last real "shocker" came in 1955 when English threw a monkey wrench into the works of what had been a BLS steamroller. Latin School entered the game having outscored its opponents 169-34, and the fact that the Purple had been upset by Trade 13-12 the week before Thanksgiving was, in the eyes of the sportswriters, only one more reason to expect a massacre. Coach Stewart and his team obviously didn't see it that way. Led by co-captains Jerry D'Avolio and John Lyon, English played an aggressive and inspired game in coming from behind to beat BLS for the first time since 1951, 20-14. Lyon chalked up touchdown runs of 73 and 67 yards and the EHS defense consistently forced BLS errors and stood its ground in the second half, stopping Latin School drives three times inside its own 20. QB D'Avolio called a superb game as 16,000 fans looked on.

These, then, were just some of the games about which the experts were wrong and the underdog beat the odds. Will it happen again this year? We're not predicting anything!!

The Last Joint English-Latin Team 1885

70 YEARS AGO

1900 — South End Grounds . . . BLS 12 EHS 6 . . . According to forecast the day was to be "clear and colder." At game time, however, the mercury had dropped 15 degrees and it was snowing. The first period of 25 minutes gave thrills to rooters of both teams as the game was hard fought on a muddy field. Captain Tom Connelly had scored a touchdown for English with Fred Bogardus kicking the point-after and Dan Hurley making a touchdown for Latin with Captain Owen McGrath kicking the point-after, this making a 6 to 6 score. During the intermission between periods, spectators climbed over the low fence from each side and a snowball fight ensued. Many hits but nobody hurt. Midway in the second period of 20 minutes, faking a punt formation Captain McGrath made the longest run of the game, being stopped on the 10-yard line by "Cracker" Kennedy. On fourth down, a tackles back play with Bob Guild carrying the ball, went through a hole opened by Frank Littlefield and "Deak" Witherby for the touchdown with Capt. McGrath converting for the extra point. With this victory went the City Championship.

The Lineups: Latin School used only eleven men: Armstrong and Harris, ends; Guild and "Con" Hurley, tackles; Witherby and Devonshire, guards, with Littlefield at centre; Capt McGrath, quarterback, Dan Hurley and Arthur McCarty as halfbacks and Gene Sullivan as fullback. English had Bogardus and Sullivan as ends. Captain Connelly played L. T. against Con Hurley while Hatton, Canne, and Harrison appeared at right tackle against Guild. Collins and McCormick were the guards with Allen as centre; the backfield had Kennedy at Q.B. with McCrudden and Manahan as halfbacks with Bragdon as fullback.

1910 — Huntington Avenue Grounds . . . BLS 9 EHS 0 Splendid day . . . first in years . . . 41° temp. . . . attendance 6,000. This was Fred J. O'Brien's second year at Latin Coach and the tenth season for English coach John D. O'Reilly. This game was just as close as the score shows. Both the teams were very well coached with strong lines and good backfields, but neither offense was strong enough to get within the twenty-yard line. Four eleven-minute periods were played. The goals from the field no longer counted five points, having been reduced to 3 points. Thrice on third down Captain Malcolm Logan kicked field goals.

The Lineups: BLS presented Pete McLellan and Ernie Soucy, LE; Bill O'Hare and Bill Barry, LT; Bill Pendergast, LG; John Murphy, C; Frank Green, RG; Austin Tate, RT; Manus Fish and Jim Graham, RE; Mal Logan, QB; Fred Murray and Charles Higgins, LHB; Tom Higgins and Dick King, RHB; with Sam Temple, George MacDonald, and Tom Craven, FB. EHS lined up as follows: RE, W. E. Goodman and Steadfast; RT, Higgins, RG, Algar; C, Keane, Fielding, O'Day, and Sawyer; LG, Brown; LT, W. H. Goodman; LE, Glorosa; QB, Dolan; RHB, Nelson and Meanix; LHB, Meanix and Barnard with Captain Pierce as Fullback.

10 YEARS AGO

1960 — Harvard Stadium . . . 41° . . . BLS 20 — EHS 16 Cloudy. In a game which provided many thrills by fast running and dodging backs, Latin School came from behind and, for the first time in 36 years, has a lead of one in this old series. The standing is now 31 victories for BLS, 30 for English. There have been 13 tie games, ten of them scoreless. In the first period there was no scoring, although many fine gains were made. On the first play of the second period Sinkus ran 25 yards and on the next play Joe Ryan passed to Tom Kelly for the first score. The conversion was good for two points, Ryan to Costello, EHS leading 8 to 0. After the kickoff BLS had the ball on its 32-yard stripe. At this point Bob Walsh hit Caporale with a long pass and Ceporate travelled 40-yards for the first BLS score. Thomson rushed for 2 conversion points and the score was tied at 8 each. About five minutes later English was forced to punt. This punt, a short one, was caught by Captain Paul Barringer near the 30-yard BLS line. Paul shook off one opponent and ran the rest of the distance, behind good blocking, for the touchdown. At the end of the half BLS was leading 14 to 8. In the third quarter BLS rushed the ball to the one-yard line and made four attempts to go through the line for a score and failed, three of the stops being made by Mike Adessa. English took over and punted poorly. Ed Bell ran the punt back 25 yards to the 2-yard line. Then Larry Thomson plunged through for the touchdown, making the score, 20 to 8. In the final period EHS received the kickoff on the 18. After gaining on several rushes Ryan pitched to Dick Lane for 18-yard gain. Then Bob Cofield ran 37 yards, being apparently stopped twice by tacklers, for the touchdown. Joe Ryan passed to Costello for the two conversion points, making the score 20-16. English was still threatening, making two attempts for a pass each time being intercepted by Joe Barrett, the last one as the game ended. Latin School had won its third straight. Attendance 22,000.

The Lineups:

BLS: LE, Stanhewicz; LT, Leonard; LG, Barringer; C, Bailey; RG, Gandy; RT, Saltman; RE, Abraham; QB, Walsh; LH, Caporale; RH, Bell; FB, Hillman.

EHS: LE, Wilson; LT, Riordan; LG, Gaughan; C, Giordano; RG, Chudnofsky; RT, McCabe; RE, Costello; QB, Ryan; LH, Kelly; RH, Rooney; FB, Cofield.

5 YEARS AGO

1965 . . . BLS 24 — EHS 12 . . . Having suffered its first loss in two years only one week before, a fired-up Latin School team nearly ran English out of Harvard Stadium as it scored four touchdowns, came within ten yards of the end zone on three drives, ran up a total offense of 233 yards, and tied this old series at 33 wins apiece, with 13 ties.

Latin School opened the scoring at 5:21 of the first period when Captain Jack Burns broke through left tackle and raced 31 yards for the score. Twice more during the first half the Purple had first and goal but was repelled by the English line. BLS dominated the first half, but led only 6-0 at intermission.

LAST YEAR

On a bright sunny day before a crowd conservatively estimated at 8,000, the Latin School team rewrote the record book as it defeated English 40-0.

Led by co-captains Norman Finley and Bill McHugh, the Purple registered a total offense of 348 yards on its way to the greatest margin of victory in the history of the series. Finley took up where he had left off the year before, gaining 178 yards in 22 carries, while McHugh threw two touchdown passes, scored once himself, and called a flawless game.

The BLS defensive unit sparkled as well by intercepting 4 passes, recovering 3 fumbles, and never allowing English inside its 34 yard line.

For the Blue, the game, like the winless season, might best be forgotten. For the Purple, it was a day on which everything went right, seven different players scored, and Coach Smith recorded his fourth holiday win.
